

“Sarge” VOLUNTEERS gems at COBDEN DINNER

Representatives of more than fifty Cobden and district organisations dined at Cobden Sports Club on Friday night to celebrate the contribution made to the community by volunteers.

The event, formerly, the Combined Service Clubs’ dinner, was broadened by the hosting Sports Club to include even more groups that give time and energy to the Cobden cause.

A highlight was an address by self-proclaimed “blast from the past” Alan “Sarge” Hart who congratulated all Cobden’s “do-ers” while reflecting on his years in the community between 1983 and 2005.

Now living in Geelong, the former policeman still keeps tabs on our community, and what its organisations are doing.

Other highlights included representatives speaking to dot points mentioned on a comprehensive rolling PowerPoint and singer/guitarist Luke Bouchier entertaining guests over dinner.

Pictured, below, on our 50th Connecting Cobden page are some of the hard-working volunteers who attended the evening and enjoyed the meal and entertainment.
